FLORIDA INSTITUTE OF RESEARCH, MEDICINE & SURGERY
FORMS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

ORLANDO, FL, June 1, 2009 –Florida Institute of Research, Medicine & Surgery-Cancer Center recently formed the Florida Institute Cancer Foundation. This foundation was created to provide emergency financial assistance to cancer patients currently undergoing treatment.

“In an effort to extend our mission of providing cancer patients with quality healthcare, we have launched the Florida Institute Cancer Foundation. As a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, the foundation receives donations and allocates funds to Central Florida cancer patients in need”, said Carlos Alemany, M.D., Medical Oncologist/Hematologist and President of Florida Institute of Research, Medicine & Surgery.

Harold Mills, CEO of Zerochaos, will serve as the President/Director of the board for the foundation. He has five supporting Board Members: Kenneth Simon, D.O., Medical Oncologist/Hematologist will serve as vice president/director; Father Kenny Acquino of Holy Family Catholic Church in Orlando, and Nancy Payne and Melissa King of Florida Institute of Research, Medicine & Surgery will serve as directors; and Lynn Hogue will serve as foundation director and secretary. Each member brings a unique perspective and passion to the mission and the vision of the foundation.

Florida Institute Cancer Foundation is proud to accept gifts from corporations, foundations and individuals. If you would like to be a founding donor, or would simply like more information on the foundation, contact Lynn Hogue at 407-770-6319.
